We love and support boys in Haiti so they have a family and an identity in Christ to carry them through this life.

Hey %FIRSTNAME%

Helping someone out all the way to the bitter end can be a tough task. Many of us want to help out those in need but it takes years to build a foundation for kids. Not to mention that countries and resources change.

Then you have to deal with whatever global and cultural challenges come on top of that. If you don't have an organization dedicated to finishing the job, then they can go right back into poverty.

Life is too precious to give up on kids. So invest in a group that wants to run the whole race.

Support an organization that places 100% of their kids into loving families. There is no age out date. Imagine that every dollar you gave had a happy ending!

Sponsor a Child Today.

Give your donation knowing that your child will find a family and a job or a trade before he leaves the care of Good Shepherd.

Hey %FIRSTNAME%

You are working at your computer and another email comes in, asking you for money. You love to support people in need but you are just tired of:

- Not knowing how our money is spent
- Wishing you didn't feel guilty into giving
- Missing opportunities for your money to do more good

You should have a simple decision when it comes to donating to a non-profit group.

We agree.

Here is what Brent from North Ridge Church had to say about Good Shepherd:

"A piece of my heart remains in Haiti with the boys and staff EVERY time I've been privileged to go. I've learned about courage, faith, integrity and finding joy no matter your circumstances! LOVE & SUPPORT GSL!"

Sincerely,
Karren

If you've been considering supporting a child in Haiti, here's your chance. Be a part of two exciting new infrastructure projects that will help Good Shepherd take in even more kids soon.
